

neglect.

Miss Eunice Persons, teacher in the Binford school, departed last Friday for her home at Mount Vernon, Iowa. She will stop off at St. Paul, enroute, for a short visit with relatives. Miss Persons will not return to Binford at the opening of the next school term, having accepted a position at Fessenden. She made a host of warm friends during her stay in Binford who will regret her decision to teach elsewhere.

While at Wimbledon Monday