

School opened Monday with an attendance of 16 in the upper grades and 19 in the lower. Those figures will be easily doubled when the busy season is over.