

Everybody certainly knows,

Harold Brown will have charge of the local telephone exchange as before. Mr. Brown is a good and obliging man at the business and the patrons thought him the right man and therefore he was sent back and the Times welcomes Mr. and Mrs. Brown among us again.