

put in a store here.

Manager Parsons was up from Cooperstown the fore part of the week. He is planning some improvements to the rural telephone lines. A carload of poles was unloaded here last week and these are to be used in extension work.