

Anton Brendingen left last Monday for Alberta, Canada, to look after his homestead interests. He expects to return in time for harvest.