

Mrs. William Carlton is reported to be getting along nicely after her operation which was performed on Monday. Mr. Carlton returned from Valley City, Tuesday and reports that her condition was very encouraging when he left her, and if no serious complication arises she is expected to fully recover.