

Messrs. Cooper and Patterson have sold their First National Bank stock to H. P. Hammer and George H. Condy and these gentlemen now have control of that bank. The new officers will be elected in January. The one regret in this change is the removal from this city of Mr. Patterson and family. During the eight years they have lived here they have made many warm friends who keenly regret their leaving our little city.—Courier.

The Capital, published at Sas-