

Courier: Manager Parsons of the Griggs County Telephone company has been doing some good work around town that will be appreciated. All the wires on the main street are being taken down and put in the alleys which is a big improvement not only in looks in having the poles taken down on the main thoroughfare, but also in the service, the replacing of the wires making it possible to keep the lines in better order.