

Mrs. W. E. West was called to McHenry last Friday on account of the serious injury to her sister, Mrs. Craven. The latter was polishing a hot stove with a liquid blackening when it caught fire, inflicting severe injuries to her hands. One of her sons was also burned quite badly.