

Hazel, the baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Curry has had a light attack of measles during the past week, but has not been very sick any of the time, the rash practically disappearing after the first day. No serious complications appearing it is expected she will be fully recovered in a short time.