

As the editor of this paper will be obliged to remove from Binford in the very near future to attend to important matters, we very respectfully request all who know themselves to be indebted to us to call and settle as soon as possible. We expect to leave here no later than the forepart of October and will be away for several months at least, and possibly years, so that we feel that we must have all that is due us before leaving. There will be a great deal of expense in connection with our moving away, we have numerous obligations we would like to meet before departing, and it is of the greatest importance that those who are indebted to us call and settle at the earliest possible time. This is a fair request and we trust that all our debtors will comply with it and save us unnecessary trouble.
