

Andrew Dablin was taken suddenly sick while down town last Saturday and scarcely had strength enough to get home. He was stricken with some internal ailment. Dr. Truscott was called and the patient was getting along nicely, even so he could be down town on Tuesday. Yesterday morning he was taken sick again and was taken to the hospital at Rochester for treatment. He was accompanied by O. S. Gundersen and Doctor Truscott.