

Mr. Dablin lost a valuable mare last week. Mr. Dablin was out to his farm and had a load of grain loaded and started on his way home, when the mare fell over. After some hard work with the assistance of hired man, managed to get her up again and started to go when she fell again, dead. It was a big loss as the mare was worth $250.