

Word was received here from Cooperstown Tuesday evening to the effect that Tina Davidson has appendicitis and that she was to be taken to the hospital on Wednesday to undergo an operation. The news of her illness is received with regret by her many friends here who all join in wishing her a complete recovery in a short time.