

larning.

A few days ago while Emil Dusbabek was driving across Long Lake, his horses suddenly dropped through the ice into about five feet of water. Leaving them there, he made a record trip home where he procured another team and a rope with which he succeeded in pulling the unfortunate horses to dry land. Emil says they were not harmed in the least. Anyway, a cold bath is recommended for the health.

---