

Lou Evers returned Tuesday from Hot Springs in Arkansas, where he and E. C. Amadon have spent the winter in taking treatment for rheumatism. They are both feeling very much improved which is good news to their many friends here. Ernest came back as far as Minnesota, and stopped off there for some time, when he will doubtless proceed to this place to spend the summer.