

Mrs. August Evers went to Fargo last Thursday to consult physicians. Mr. Evers went down Saturday and returned yesterday with his wife. It was feared for a time that she would have to submit to an operation but the doctors advised a rest and a treatment with medicine.

The wedding was solemn.