

Ben Ford is having his building on Main street fitted up and in a short time will open up a pool hall and soft drink emporium. He has ordered dandy line of fixtures, including a large mirror for the back bar. Everything will be brand new. The Times bespeaks success for him.