

Roy Gratias, the "Saxon Demon," came up from Fargo last Friday and will remain in the country up north for some time. He won his wrestling match with Christianson of Nome last week, getting the first and last fall. He has been in active training for the past four months and now expects to take a rest.

Peter Marcotte, one of the prosperous