

Report of the Board of Health.

Report for 1906 of Births and Deaths, Contagious and Infectious diseases in Griggs County, received at the office of the County Sup't. Board of Health.

NUMBER OF BIRTHS

Males	- - - - -	39
Females	- - - - -	40

DISEASES CAUSING DEATH

Appendicitis	- - - - -	1
Burns	- - - - -	1
Catarrh of Stomach	- - - - -	1
Carcinoma	- - - - -	1
Diphtheria	- - - - -	1
Fibroma	- - - - -	1
Gastro-enteritis	- - - - -	1
Heart-failure	- - - - -	1
Intestinal-paralysis	- - - - -	1
Nephritis	- - - - -	2
Old age	- - - - -	4
Pneumonia	- - - - -	1
Pedatrophny	- - - - -	1
Suicide	- - - - -	1
Tuberculosis	- - - - -	4
Tubercular menengitis	- - - - -	1
Whooping-cough	- - - - -	1
Unknown cause	- - - - -	1

Number of deaths - - - - - 25

Number of Infectious and Contagious diseases - - - - - 57

Tuberculosis	- - - - -	4
Tubercular menengitis	- - - - -	1
Typhoid fever	- - - - -	9
Pneumonia-	- - - - -	2
Diphtheria	- - - - -	1
Smallpox	- - - - -	16
Scarlet fever	- - - - -	1
Measles	- - - - -	13
Chicken-pox	- - - - -	1
Whooping cough	- - - - -	1

The northwestern portion of the county leads in the number of births. The southern portion of the county is very seldom heard from, however, the Board of Health trusts that more reports will be received from the town clerks during 1907.

C. L. Brimi, M. D.

Sup't County Board of Health.