

O. S. Ounderson, who left here two weeks ago for Reynolds, writes that he has secured the management of a co-operative store there, and will return here in a short time to move his household goods to that place.

Last Thursday was a great day