

Miss Signe Berndtson has resigned her position as assistant postmistress, and will leave the first of February for Vancouver, where she has been offered a very lucrative position. Miss Berndtson made many friends during her stay here. She was a courteous and obliging postmistress. Miss Caroline Hagberg has been appointed to fill the vacancy at the postoffice.