

The Citizens State Bank has been consolidated with the First National Bank the business to be conducted under the name of the latter institution. A. O. Anderson has been elected president. Donald Camwbell and Claus Jackson, vice-president, and Messrs. Thoreson and Parker will remain in their present capacities. This consolidation is for the best interests of the patrons of both banks and the business interests of all will be promptly and courteously looked after the First National Bank.—Hannaford Enterprise.