

Sam Helland, that expounder of socialistic ideas, arrived from Glendive, Montana, Monday to spend a few days among relatives and his many friends. Sam looks the picture of health and is enjoying prosperity in its fullest sense. He and his brother, Arndt, own a large livery barn in Glendive and are going to put in an auto livery. He will return to Glendive today.

---