

Brakeman James Houghtaling, who was badly injured by being squeezed between two coaches on the branch passenger train some weeks ago and taken to the Brainard hospital, arrived home last evening. He has not fully recovered yet, but is feeling fine.—Sanborn Enterprise.