
BRAKEMAN HURT.

Caught Between Cars at McHenry This Week.

James Houghtaling, a brakeman on the local passenger train, got caught between two coaches while switching at McHenry and suffered a broken collarbone and was otherwise bruised up. He was taken to Sanborn where he resides.
