

Jorgen Houland, who was taken to Valley City a few weeks ago for an operation for tuberculosis, is not recovering as rapidly as hoped for. He is a young man who came over from the old country a short time ago and is making his home with Rev. Swenson.