Rev. Reininga and wife and baby departed Monday for their new home at Kensington, Kansas. Binford people are sorry to lose Mr. Reininga and his estimable wife and baby but wish them an abundance of success in their new field.

Ole Hanson met with a very painful though not serious accident last Monday afternoon which will lay him up for some time. He was examining a Winchester repeating shotgun and it exploded, 11 shots entering the ankle. He was brought to town and Dr. Truscott dressed the wound.

A change is to be made in the Trimble-Winton lumber yards which will promote Robt. Dahl, of the yard at this place to manager of the company's interests at Jessie. The vacancy here will be filled by Morris Greenland of Esmond and his place there will be filled by John Erickson of Jessie.

Matt Hovel received a $100 draft last Friday from the state as part payment for some glandered horses that were ordered killed by the state authorities about two years ago. This law was in effect at that time but no appropriation was made for that purpose, but at the last session of the legislature an appropriation was made, hence the draft.

The interior of the Hub restaurant presents a very neat appearance since it was repapered and repainted and a new sign adorns the front of the popular restaurant. Mr. Shaw is running a clean, up-to-date place and with the valuable services of his assistant, Torger, is able to take care of the wants of his customers on short notice.

A prosperous looking gentleman entered the drug store and asked the man in charge how much they charged for sulphur. The druggist informed him that his price was ten cents per pound. "Ten cents per pound!" exclaimed the prosperous looking party, "why I can send to Montgomery & Ward and get it for six." "You can get it in bulk for nothing," was the druggist's prompt reply, "and you won't have to pay any freight either."

County Notice

The board of county commissioners wishes to give notice that petitions for road work to be done this season, and involving the expenditure of the county road fund, should be filed in this office not later than May 3rd, which is the date of the next session.

This fund is for improving the main roads to markets, and the board is anxious to place it where most needed, and at the same time, attention is to the different roads in the county as to condition.
