

ROBBERS AT HANNAFORD

Early Monday morning, robbers entered the store of Claus Jackson and robbed the store of considerable jewelry and other valuable articles in addition to robbing the postoffice which is located in the same store to the amount of $600, aggregating a combined loss of about $1000. The Hannaford Mercantile Co. was also robbed and the loss in the two places is estimated at about $2000. There is no clue as to the guilty parties for they made their get away and it is attributed to yegg men. The postoffice authorities at St. Paul and Washington have been notified and an immediate search will be made for the offenders.
