

best of health.

E. M. Jackson has been appointed auditor for the Trimble-Winton lumber company, who recently purchased the interests of the Gull River people. By good, hard, honest work Jack has earned the good will of his employers and his many friends all along the line will be glad to hear of his meritorious appointment.

... the ball team tells