Sentinel: Rev. J. M. Jenson of the Lutheran church of this city has received a unanimous call from Meredian, Wis. Last Sunday he tendered his resignation, deeming it expedient for the church here as well as for the pastor that such a change should be made. The congregation met last Monday evening to consider the step taken by the pastor. With a unanimous vote, the congregation requested Rev. Jenson to withdraw his resignation and remain their pastor. The matter in question is an extremely delicate one, and for that reason it has been very hard for the pastor to decide in the matter. Rev. Jenson appreciates the honor shown him by his church here, and while the honor shown him in the other unaninions call is no less, he feels that a hasty decision is not desirable.
