Edwin Thorn was a Klotten visitor yesterday.

N. O. Hougen and family was over to Aneta and took in the races, and he reports a good time.

Miss Nettie Dusbabek who has been the hello girl at the telephone exchange here left yesterday for Binford where she has accepted a similar position. Her sister Annie is holding down job here.

A boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Arndt the 28th and all concerned are doing nicely. Chas. is busy passing around the cigars.

Mrs. Frank Arndt went down to Edgeley Monday for a weeks visit with relatives and old friends, so Frank feels rather 'onesome now.

J. C. Thingelstad and George Sundby went out to Thinelstad's farm Monday for a few days mustard picking. Geo. says that there is good money in picking mustard if a fellow only knows how to get at it and we are glad to state that Geo. is the man who knows.

Nearly all the Jessie people are going to Binford to celebrate the 4th this year, as they figure that Cooperstown has had her share of their 4th of July money.

The streets in town are under going considerable overhauling and roadboss Drittenbass is the busiest man in town.

Old man McCulloch has not been in town for a long time. Wonder what has become of the old man any way.

Contractor Tweed has just finished a big barn for Erick Watne out on the farm.
