

Jessie News

The base ball fans of this town crossed bats with the jr. pine at Binford last Friday and got skinned to the tune of 10 to 4. We figure that it might have been worse.

Ed and Robt. Thorn, S. A. Pritz and J. C. Thingelstad were Binford visitors yesterday.

O. M. Rogne was down to Nome last Monday and while in that town became owner of a 15 h. p. Ford automobile, so he will be able to go some now.

John Berg of Cooperstown was seen on our streets yesterday in his 24 h. p. Buick car.

A crew of cement workers from Cooperstown is putting in walks in front of the State Bank which will improve that property some.

The Great Western Elevator's coal sheds are undergoing repairs and a new foundation is being by the co's carpenters.

Mr. N. O. Hougen returned home from Aneta yesterday.

Miss Inez Wied is visiting with the Ebentires this week.

Our glowing Democrat W. T. McCulloch comes every other day and lectures on "Tariff" and the "Trusts."

O. L. Anderson was in town yesterday and while in town told us that if everybody could see it the way he did, why, they would all become Dem-o-crats, which we truly believe.

Mr. Laffin has now finished his new residence and it goes without saying that Mr. Laffin has the most up-to-date building in town of its kind.

Gilbert Sloulin, a brother of Mrs. Hougen was a Jessie visitor yesterday from Aneta.
