

Jessie News

Everybody is enjoying the big rains that we are having now now days.

Mr. Edward Atorhoff of East-edge, N. D., a cousin of our townsman S. A. Pritz, is here visiting for a few days.

The Ladies Aid society of the Lutheran Church had their annual auction sale at Lake Jessie today and they received the neat sum of $40 for the r goods which speaks well for that society.

A bunch of Jessie people attended the Old Settlers picnic in Cooperstown Monday.

Edwin Thorn had the misfortune of breaking the crank shaft on his automobile the other day, so Ed. has to walk now.

A dance was given by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Retzlaff last Saturday evening, and a good time is reported. The Rickford orchestra furnished the music.

Mr. Otto Olson visited with Mr. and Mrs. Schlins over Sunday.

Joe Ebentire of Helena, N. D., was seen on our streets the other day.

Miss Kate Spurger, daughter of Sam Spurger was taken sick with appendicitis and went to Fargo last Saturday to undergo an operation.

The residence of John Hoyell was hit by lightning last Sunday afternoon, but very little damage was done, so John can praise himself lucky.

BILL.