

Ernest Knapp left Tuesday for Montana, where he will look up some land and if he finds some suitable he will take up a claim. Other attractions, too, are said to have induced him to go out there.