

SURPRISE PARTY

A Pleasant Event at the Home of
Boyd Knapp last Week.

The friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Knapp planned a happy surprise on Mrs. Knapp, being her 26th birthday anniversary.

At 8:30, Wednesday evening a noise was heard at the door that fairly rend the heavens. Mrs. Knapp dropped her news paper, exclaimed "Why, Boyd, what in the world?" After collecting her thoughts they went to the door, and there in sleigh loads were the merry makers with lunch baskets. Sheriff Knapp and Mike Weise tested the lunch to see if it would stand the Pure Food law, and decided it would stand the test alright. Frank Hartman was put in as Captain of the crowd and managed it very nicely, and managed to show them a good time. Miss May Harris of McHenry favored them with two solos entitled, "I want My Mam-ma;" "I have'nt any use for sleep." Miss Alma Bruns also favored them with several instrumental selections, and at the usual hour supper was served beneath a beautiful parlor hanging lamp as token of their love and friendship.
