

Sheriff Knapp was blessed with one of the finest days on record for his auction sale, and the crowd gathered from all over the country. The total amount of the sale amounted to nearly $4,000, so it will be readily seen that he had a bunch of stuff to sell. However this was not what is commonly termed a sheriff's sale even if it was the sheriff's sale.