

S. H. Koloen departed Saturday for New England, near which place he has filed on a piece of land. He requested us to change the address of his paper to that place as he will spend some time there.