

present.

In a letter from Carl J. Krogfoss, who resigned his position in the bank at Claremont, S. D., and went to Tolley, this state, his name appears on the letter head as cashier of the Tolley State bank. Carl's many friends in Binford are pleased to learn of his rapid rise in the banking world and hope to see him continue up the ladder of success.