

W. E. Lanpher and son, Solon, were here this week from Kirkwood, Illinois, looking over some land. The son bought the old Fred Lucht homestead and the senior gentleman bought the T. B. Stock quarter, all through the First State bank agency. The gentlemen travelled thru South Dakota and made many stops en route but saw nothing that compared with the land here. They were greatly impressed with Binford. The younger gentleman expects to come out and settle on the place next spring. He is of the opinion that alfalfa and clover will thrive here and will put in a good sized field of it. He will also raise some stock.

The dinner little traveling man came