

Christ Lear and family departed for New England where Mr. Lear expects to go to farming, making that country their future home. The TIMES wishes Mr. Lear and family success in their new location.