

honored guests in Danvers.

Geo. Lockett came over from Wimbledon last Saturday to spend a few days here with his family and look after his business interests. He expects to move his family to Wimbledon some time next week. George has his store fixed up there and is looked after by A. S. Johnson of this place during his absence. He has every assurance of a good business at Wimbledon.