

Peter Marcotte, one of the prosperous farmers living southwest of town, was in town Tuesday. Mr. Marcotte lives about 16 miles from town and was in the belt that was hit by hail last Friday. He had three quarters in crop and at least half of it was knocked to the ground. Some of his neighbors will suffer a total loss.

Miss Laura, eldest daughter of Mr.