

purpose of the road to build.

H. J. Maurer went to Coopers-town Monday. He bought a Reeves steam engine from Lewis Berg and will ship it to Montana in a short time. He has a plowing outfit out there and as soon as he can arrange matters here, he and his son, John, will move out and begin turning over the sod.

Services were held in the New