

John Maurer will have an auction sale of his personal property in Canada some time in March and expects to return to Binford after closing up business matters. He has rented his farm up there and will file on a claim in Montana.