

Oscar Greenland received a letter from his father, who is taking treatment at Hot Springs. He states that he is improving rapidly. He also reports that Mr. McCulloch is not in the best of health, but that does not hinder him from discussing the live questions of the day, and that, too, with a great deal of pressure.