

P. L. Neil, postoffice inspector was here last Thursday inspecting the proposed rural routes south west and south east, and we are in hopes of getting the routes in a short time, which will be good thing for the patrons.