

The Times is in receipt of a letter from Anton H. Nelson, of Litchfield, Minnesota, asking for information leading to the whereabouts of his brother, Thoralf (or Thorvald) Nelson. He has not heard from him for 12 years. His mother is at Litchfield, preparing to go to Norway, and would like to see him before she goes. Anyone knowing of his whereabouts will confer a favor upon his relatives by letting them know.