

Ben E. Nelson has been out among the farmers this week interesting them in his co-operative store project. He is meeting with success on every hand, and expects to be able to organize the company about the first of July or thereabouts. So far, about a quarter of the stock is taken.