

year will be unusually high.

Sentinel: Thomas Carroll, of Jessie, was arrested last Wednesday on complaint of Erick Nelson, a farm laborer employed by Ole Thorn, charged with maintaining a common nuisance and selling intoxicating liquor unlawfully. The complaint was made before Justice Rearick on Tuesday, States Attorney Tufte engineering matters, and subpoenas were issued for Ole Anderson, Ed Thorn, N.O. Haugen, Oscar Rogne, John Lindgren, Sever Pritz, and Erick Nelson, to appear as witnesses. Sheriff Knapp went up to Jessie early Wednesday morning and placed Carrol under arrest. A peculiar circumstance of the case was that Erick Nelson, the complaining witness, disappeared on Wednesday and when the hearing was to be held he could not be found. It is thought that he became weak-kneed and "took to the timber" as the easiest way out of the case.